

November 29, 2018

Columbus, Georgia Convention and Trade Center

All seminars are available for 8th through 12th graders

Speaker-Engaged Discussions:

Branding Yourself —

Going off to college soon? Preparing for that first job? Engage with our professionals to see what do's and don'ts with social media, how to carry yourself to your first interview, and establishing and maintaining your identify.

An Artist's Journey —

Everyone's journey in life is different. Learn from a self-taught artist about how life circumstances led him up a path he never imagined while students participate in an artist activity.

#GotSkillz —

Employers all agree that soft skills are a combination of skill sets that are highly valuable in the workplace. This session is going to help identify what soft skills are and show how soft skills can be used to effectively navigate any work environment. This is a session you do not want to miss.

Unleashing Your Pandora's Box —

Unsure of your gifts? Afraid to express your unique talents? In this session, learn how to identify your gifts and maximize new opportunities. Learn to take a chance on you because you are worth it. Empower yourself. Empower your peers.

Unapologetically Me! —

Challenged with being yourself? Do you try to be who your peers want you to be? Learn how to walk the line between confidence and arrogance. Learn to market yourself and exude confidence without turning others off.

AR, VR, Oh My! —

Technology slows for no one. In this session, learn the difference between augmented reality and virtual reality and why it matters.

Panel Discussions:

Think Like A Boss! —

Ever wonder what employers think about interviewees and employees? Here's your opportunity to receive an inside scoop. Join local professionals for a chance to ask questions and better prepare for that next connection.

Level Up! —

Gain a competitive edge by learning why internships matter and what internships are available. This session gives a direct look into internships and apprenticeships from the employers who offer the program. These opportunities are real life looks at what the job will offer and is a great way to gain experience before you take on your first job. Many times internships and apprenticeships lead to full time employment. Don't believe? Check out these employers and see what they have to say.

Career Path Innovation —

Art design brings technology to life. Check out these professionals and how they use art in a unique fashion in the workplace.

You-niversity 101 —

Wondering if college is really like the movies? What about what your teachers say? With this panel discussion of current and recent graduates, learn about what they wish they had done differently, things they're glad they did, and what they wish they knew before going off to college.

Mock Interviews — (One-to-One discussion)

Job interviews can be challenging, as we know. Communicating with confidence takes practice. Area HR and career professionals will offer mock interviews at the Expo. These volunteers work with students and offer positive, constructive feedback that will help students for their next "real" interview albeit a job or college admission. Volunteer career professionals will also hold mini-workshops on effective job interviewing and securing a summer job.

